Many people do not know where to turn in the times of crisis or the every day need struggles. 2-1-1 benefits the community, families and individuals and can offer access to the following types of services:

- Basic human needs (food pantries, clothing, rent and/or utility assistance, shelters)
- Physical and mental health resources (health insurance, Medicaid and Medicare, crisis intervention services, support groups, drug/alcohol counseling)
- Employment support (financial assistance, job training, educational programs, transportation assistance)
- Support for older Americans and persons with disabilities (adult care, Meals on Wheels, home health care, homemaker services, senior transportation)
- Support for Children, Youth and Families (after school programs, tutoring, summer camps, child care, protective services)
- Volunteer opportunities and donations

While the 2-1-1 system connects community members with the needed human resources, it provides the following services:

- Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana
- Clubs
- Alzheimer's Support
- Literacy Services
- Legal Services
- Disabilities
- Credit Counseling

Each hour someone in the United States needs essential services from finding childcare to locating the proper health insurance programs. Locally, 2-1-1 is an outreach service providing temporary or long-term assistance for those that need help. Get connected. Get answers. Dial 2-1-1.
